To help the United States Government fight terrorism and money laundering, Federal law requires us to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person or business that applies for financing or establishes a relationship. What this means for you: when you apply for financing or establish a relationship, for businesses we will ask for the business name, street address, and tax identification number. For sole proprietorships and personal guarantors, we will ask for your name, street address, date of birth, and identification number, such as a social security number or taxpayer identification number. Federal law requires us to obtain this information. We may also request to see other identifying documents. In all cases, we are committed to protecting the privacy and identity of each of our customers.
